Citi Returns as Official Sponsor of PaleyFest LA with Presale Tickets Available Starting January 14

LOS ANGELES, CA, January 14, 2020 – The Paley Center for Media today announced the lineup and talent participants for PaleyFest LA 2020, the premier television festival that will take place March 13-22 at the iconic Dolby Theatre in Hollywood. Citi cardmembers, plus Paley Patron, Fellow, and Supporting Members, will have an exclusive opportunity to purchase tickets first during a special presale starting January 14.

This year's festival will open with the cast and creative team from ABC's Modern Family, followed by Pop TV's One Day at a Time, Netflix's A Special Evening with Dolly Parton & Dolly Parton's Heartstrings, CBS's NCIS: 400th Episode Celebration, Amazon Prime Video's The Boys, CBS All Access' Star Trek: Picard, Starz's Outlander, HBO's Curb Your Enthusiasm, Netflix's Dead to Me, Netflix's Ozark, Pop TV's Schitt's Creek, and the festival will close with Disney+'s The Mandalorian.

"Every year television fans know that PaleyFest LA is the place to be for the inside scoop on the most acclaimed and popular shows on television, and this year's lineup is no exception," said Maureen J. Reidy, the Paley Center's President & CEO. "From some of the top shows in drama, comedy, fantasy, science fiction, and a special celebration of one of the world's most beloved entertainers, there is something for every television fan to enjoy at this year's PaleyFest."

It's not just television fans who are inspired by PaleyFest—it's also the actors and brilliant minds behind the shows featured. Over the Festival's rich history some of the most talented names in television have graced the PaleyFest stage, and the tradition continues this year when PaleyFest welcomes the cast and creative teams behind today's most acclaimed shows.

"It's an honor to be invited to PaleyFest and join other filmmakers and talent in celebrating great television programming. It is especially exciting to be representing our Disney+ series, The Mandalorian, at the closing night presentation," said Jon Favreau, executive producer/creator, The Mandalorian.

"What a great opportunity to thank our fans for their support over seventeen years. That this show is still stronger than ever is a testament to this cast and crew and our fan loyalty. We look forward to celebrating with them at PaleyFest and are appreciative of being included in the lineup," said NCIS star and executive producer Mark Harmon.

"I keep telling my wife, my sh*t belongs in a museum. Well, who's laughing now?? The brilliant cast and troubled producers of The Boys can't wait to get together with their fans and say some inappropriate things. Seriously, it's an amazing honor for a freshman show to be chosen by PaleyFest. We look forward to making them deeply regret it," said The Boys executive producer and showrunner Eric Kripke.

"We are honored to be included as part of PaleyFest LA. We love being able to speak directly to the Outlander fans and we look forward to taking this opportunity to thank them for their tremendous support over the years," said Outlander executive producer Ronald D. Moore.

"We couldn't be happier. The list of shows that have been included in PaleyFest is like a laundry list of our favorite series ever. So, to get to share the start of Ozark season three on that stage is truly an honor," said Ozark executive producer Chris Mundy.

"As a longtime fan of PaleyFest, I'm deeply honored and nerdily excited to celebrate Dead to Me on the PaleyFest stage with our cast and fans," said Dead to Me creator and executive producer Liz Feldman.

PaleyFest LA benefits the Paley Center's preservation and archival digitization efforts, and its ongoing mission to explore the significant impact of media on our culture and society. The Paley Center is home to the nation's foremost publicly accessible archive of television and radio content, with over 160,000 programs spanning the history of media, including collections that feature achievements in television from the African-American, Hispanic, and LGBTQ+ communities, women, music, and most recently comedy.

Citi returns as the Official Card of PaleyFest LA, offering Citi cardmembers special presale access to tickets, which can be purchased through citi.entertainment.com beginning today at noon PT. About The Paley Center for Media

The Paley Center for Media is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that leads the discussion about the cultural, creative, and social significance of television, radio, and emerging platforms, drawing upon its curatorial expertise, an international collection, and close relationships with the media community. The general public can participate in Paley programs in both New York and Los Angeles that explore and celebrate the creativity, the innovations, the personalities, and the leaders who are shaping media. They can also access the Paley Center's permanent media collection, which contains over 160,000 television and radio programs and advertisements. Through the global programs of its Media Council and International Council, the Paley Center also serves as a neutral setting where media professionals can engage in discussion and debate about the evolving media landscape. Previously known as The Museum of Television & Radio, the Paley Center was founded in 1975 by William S. Paley, a pioneering innovator in the industry.
