New York, NY, January 16, 2019 – The Paley Center for Media today announced the latest selection to its 2019 PaleyLive NY Spring Season: Manifest. This program will take place on February 7 at 6:30pm, at the Paley Center's New York location. A limited number of tickets will be on sale for this highly anticipated program, with tickets first available to Paley Patron, Fellow, and Supporting Members.

"We're looking forward to welcoming the cast and creator of Manifest, television's top new drama to the Paley Center," said Maureen J. Reidy, the Paley Center's President & CEO. "PaleyLive programs connect television fans to the stars of television's most-buzzed about shows, and our latest selection is no exception."

Manifest follows the passengers of Montego Air Flight 828, which landed safely after a turbulent but routine flight. Yet in the span of those few hours, the world had aged five years and their friends, families, and colleagues, after mourning their loss, had given up hope and moved on. Now, faced with the impossible, they're all given a second chance. But as their new realities become clear, a deeper mystery unfolds and some of the returned passengers soon realize they may be meant for something greater than they ever thought possible.

The Paley Center will screen an upcoming episode followed by a discussion and Q & A with stars Melissa Roxburgh (Michaela Stone); Josh Dallas (Ben Stone); Athena Karkanis (Grace Stone); J.R. Ramirez (Jared Vasquez); and creator and executive producer Jeff Rake.

"It's been a remarkable experience to be part of this extraordinary show," said Josh Dallas. "We are thrilled and honored to be coming to the Paley Center to present this special behind-the-scenes look at Manifest."
