“CBS DAYTIME #1 FOR 30 YEARS” EXHIBIT TO DEBUT AT THE PALEY CENTER FOR MEDIA IN BEVERLY HILLS

Exhibit to Feature Sets and Costumes from Daytime Shows Including the “Big Wheel” from The Price Is Right

New Exhibit is Part of CBS Daytime’s Year-Long Celebration

BEVERLY HILLS, CA - October 10, 2016 – The Paley Center for Media is excited to announce that the new exhibit, CBS Daytime #1 for 30 Years, will make its debut at the Paley Center on October 12, 2016. The exhibit, created by CBS Daytime to commemorate 30 years of the Network’s daytime programming being rated #1, will feature sets, props, and costumes from Let’s Make a Deal, The Price Is Right, The Young and the Restless, The Bold and the Beautiful, and The Talk. In addition, the Paley Center will host four consecutive weeks of panel events featuring the talent and creative teams from the CBS Daytime lineup.

Visitors to the exhibit will have the rare chance to immerse themselves in the world of CBS Daytime, viewing sets, costumes, and props from their favorite shows, as well as engaging in special interactives. Included in the exhibit: the “Big Wheel” from The Price Is Right; the “Car Pong” game and the Zonko, Zurtle, and Zonkey mascot costumes from Let’s Make a Deal; a replica of Victor Newman’s office and the Chancellor Park set from The Young and the Restless; the fashion runway from the opening credits of The Bold and the Beautiful, in addition to five memorable wedding dresses and wardrobe from international location shoots; the original host table from The Talk and the costumes each host wore for the 2015’s Daytime Emmy-winning episode “Rocktober Halloween Spectacular.”

“The Paley Center is thrilled to host the debut of this incredible exhibit,” said Maureen J. Reidy, President & CEO of The Paley Center for Media. “The television shows from CBS Daytime have enthralled generations and we’re so excited that our visitors will have the once-in-a lifetime opportunity to see all the iconic sets, props, and costumes from all their favorite shows up close, as well as have the opportunity to learn the creative process behind these shows from their favorite stars during our special panel discussions.”
“This is the perfect way to celebrate CBS Daytime being #1 for 30 years and the rich history of our iconic shows. Our passionate and dedicated fans have invited us into their homes for decades and this exhibit at the Paley Center offers a unique, hands-on opportunity for viewers to interact with and experience the shows they know and love,” said Angelica McDaniel, Executive Vice President, Daytime Programs, CBS Entertainment.

The four weeks of panels will include lively and entertaining discussions with the talent and producers from the CBS Daytime line up including:

About The Paley Center for Media

The Paley Center for Media, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with locations in New York and Los Angeles, leads the discussion about the cultural, creative, and social significance of television, radio, and emerging platforms for the professional community and media-interested public. Drawing upon its curatorial expertise, an international collection, and close relationships with the leaders of the media community, the Paley Center examines the intersections between media and society. The general public can access the Paley Archive – including special African-American, Hispanic, and LGBT collections – and participate in programs that explore and celebrate the creativity, the innovations, the personalities, and the leaders who are shaping media. Through the global programs of its Media Council and International Council, the Paley Center also serves as a neutral setting where media professionals can engage in discussion and debate about the evolving media landscape. Previously known as The Museum of Television & Radio, the Paley Center was founded in 1975 by William S. Paley, a pioneering innovator in the industry.
