Beverly Hills, CA, August 5, 2019 – The Paley Center for Media announced today that it will host its 13th annual PaleyFest Fall TV Previews September 5-15, 2019, at the Paley Center’s Beverly Hills location. The ten-day festival celebrates the most anticipated new shows of the Fall 2019 television season as well as returning favorites from all five major broadcast networks, cable television, and premium streaming services. Each event includes screenings followed by star-studded discussions with the series cast and creatives.

“We’re thrilled to once again present one of the most anticipated events of the fall television season,” said Maureen J. Reidy, the Paley Center’s President & CEO. “Many of television’s most beloved shows have graced the PaleyFest Fall TV Previews stage, and we look forward to hosting the cast and creative teams from the next generation of unforgettable television programs.”

PaleyFest Fall TV Previews will kick off on September 5 with the cast and creative team of NBC’s Perfect Harmony followed by screenings and discussions with the casts and creatives of Amazon Prime Video’s Undone; Spectrum Originals’ Mad About You; The CW’s Batwoman and Nancy Drew; FOX’s Almost Family; Hulu’s Wu-Tang: An American Saga and Dollface; CBS’s All Rise and Bob ♥ Abishola; TNT’s Chasing the Cure; ABC’s mixed-ish; Nickelodeon’s The Casagrandes; and concludes on the evening of September 15 with the cast and creative team from Netflix’s Disenchantment.

“I am looking forward to engaging with the audience attending the PaleyFest Fall TV Previews about how everyone can be a force for good,” said Ann Curry.

“I love PaleyFest Fall TV Previews because its’ focus has always been about connecting with the audience,” said Kat Dennings. “I couldn’t be more excited to debut Dollface here and can’t wait to share this show with everyone.”

“We’re very excited to have the opportunity to showcase the culture, humor and heart of Nickelodeon’s The Casagrandes at PaleyFest Fall TV Previews,” said Michael Rubiner, Executive Producer. “The Paley Center for Media is the perfect place to introduce the talented voice actors and production team who bring this series about a multi-generational Mexican-American family to life.”

About The Paley Center for Media

The Paley Center for Media, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with locations in New York and Los Angeles, leads the discussion about the cultural, creative, and social significance of television, radio, and emerging platforms. Drawing upon its curatorial expertise, an international collection, and close relationships with the leaders of the media community, the Paley Center examines the intersections between media and society. The general public can access the Paley Center's permanent media collection, which contains over 160,000 television and radio programs and advertisements, and participate in programs that explore and celebrate the creativity, the innovations, the personalities, and the leaders who are shaping media. Through the global programs of its Media Council and International Council, the Paley Center also serves as a neutral setting where media professionals can engage in discussion and debate about the evolving media landscape. Previously known as The Museum of Television & Radio, the Paley Center was founded in 1975 by William S. Paley, a pioneering innovator in the industry.
