Beverly Hills, CA, July 18, 2017 – This year’s long awaited Fall TV season will kick off in a big way at the 11th annual PaleyFest Fall TV Previews, being held September 6-16, 2017, at the Paley Center’s Beverly Hills location (465 N. Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210). The Paley Center for Media will host the ten-day festival celebrating Fall TV’s most anticipated new and returning series including shows from all four major broadcast networks, cable television, and premium streaming services. Each event will include a star-studded panel discussion with series cast and creatives.

“PaleyFest Fall TV Previews is the place where TV enthusiasts not only get a first look at the most exciting new shows of the television season, but also have the rare opportunity to engage with each show’s stars and creators,” said Maureen J. Reidy, the Paley Center’s President & CEO. “From Scandal to black-ish to The Mindy Project, and most recently This Is Us, television’s most beloved shows first made their mark at PaleyFest Fall TV Previews and we’re thrilled to preview the next great shows coming to TV this fall.”

PaleyFest Fall TV Previews will kick off on September 6 with the cast and creative team of SHOWTIME’s Shameless, followed by screenings and discussions with the cast and creatives of Univision’s El Chapo; Hulu’s Future Man and The Mindy Project; ABC’s The Mayor; The CW’s Valor and Dynasty; NBC’s Law & Order True Crime: The Menendez Murders; CBS’ Me, Myself & I; Fox’s The Orville and Ghosted; Netflix’s Big Mouth and Fuller House; BET’s Tales; and will conclude with EPIX’s Berlin Station.

About The Paley Center for Media:

The Paley Center for Media, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with locations in New York and Los Angeles, leads the discussion about the cultural, creative, and social significance of television, radio, and emerging platforms for the professional community and media-interested public. Drawing upon its curatorial expertise, an international collection, and close relationships with the leaders of the media community, the Paley Center examines the intersections between media and society. The general public can access the Paley Center’s permanent media collection which contains over 160,000 television and radio programs and advertisements, and participate in programs that explore and celebrate the creativity, the innovations, the personalities, and the leaders who are shaping media. Through the global programs of its Media Council and International Council, the Paley Center also serves as a neutral setting where media professionals can engage in discussion and debate about the evolving media landscape. Previously known as The Museum of Television & Radio, the Paley Center was founded in 1975 by William S. Paley, a pioneering innovator in the industry.
