

THE PALEY CENTER FOR MEDIA

weekend SCREENINGS

from the Paley Archive on the Big Screen

family PROGRAMMING

(for young'uns)

Starts at 12:10 pm
Saturdays & Sundays

See treasures from the Paley Archive, highlights of some of the most innovative, important, acclaimed, popular, and rare titles in our peerless collection of programming, organized by topics that are culturally/historically relevant or just too much fun to resist.

Screenings Come in Two Sizes:

- family PROGRAMMING
12:10 PM
- featured PROGRAMMING
2:00 PM

Go to paleycenter.org for details.

Ticket Information

Paley Members Free.

Join at paleycenter.org/join-us

Included with General Admission

($10 for adults; $8 for students and senior citizens; $5 for children under fourteen)

September 13 & 14;
September 20 & 21;
September 27 & 28, 12:10 pm

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 MINUTES

There's more than one way to globe trot, as we demonstrate in this showcase of exceptional children's programming from around the world!

Knyacki (Japan, 1996); The Story of Piloo Looking for His Mother (Slovenia, 1997); Round the Twist (Australia, 1993); The Girl and the Coconut Horn (Philippines, 1993); Chunga Chui (Leopard Beware) (UK, 2001); and more!

October 4 & 5;
October 11 & 12, 12:10 pm

SUPERHEROES

October skies mean Comic Con in Gotham City, so what better time to present these superhero screenings from our collection of family programming.

Superman: "The Mummy Strikes" (1943); Superfriends: "The Final Challenge" (1978); The Fairly Oddparents: "The Crimson Chin Meets Mighty Mom and Dyno Dad" (2003); X-Men: "Days of Future Past" (1992)

October 18 & 19;
October 25 & 26, 12:10 pm

HALLOWEEN

There are tricks and treats a-plenty as the Paley Center celebrates Halloween with a grab bag of episodes and specials celebrating every ghoul's favorite holiday. Our family programming revolves around the mischief and witchery of October 31st.

Garfield's Halloween Adventure (1985); The Addams Family (1965); Soul Man (1997); Tales from the Darkside (1983)

Photos: Knyacki: NHK; Batman: Warner Bros.; Robert & Anne Drew: Courtesy Drew Associates; Dr. Horrible: Mutant Enemy Productions

THE PALEY CENTER FOR MEDIA

weekend SCREENINGS from the Paley Archive on the Big Screen

featured PROGRAMMING (for everyone)

Starts at 2:00 pm
Saturdays & Sundays

See treasures from the Paley Archive, highlights of some of the most innovative, important, acclaimed, popular, and rare titles in our peerless collection of programming, organized by topics that are culturally/historically relevant or just too much fun to resist.

Screenings Come in Two Sizes:

- family PROGRAMMING
12:10 PM
- featured PROGRAMMING
2:00 PM

Go to paleycenter.org for details.

Ticket Information

Paley Members Free.

Join at paleycenter.org/join-us

Included with General Admission ($10 for adults; $8 for students and senior citizens; $5 for children under fourteen)

September 13 & 14, 2:00 pm

GROUNDING PILOTS

Presenting six of the weird, the wild, and the wonderful unsold television pilots of the past from our collection that never made it to TV.

Woody Allen's The Laughmakers, 1962: Paul Hampton, Alan Alda, Sandy Baron, and Louise Lasser play improv comedians in 1960s Greenwich Village; The Carol Channing Show, 1966: Directed by Desi Arnaz, this pilot features Carol Channing playing a small town woman who moves to New York City to try to make it in show business; and more.

September 20 & 21, 2:00 pm

THE PREMIERE OF ROBERT DREW'S FINAL PROJECT

The Paley Center is honored to premiere documentary filmmaker Robert Drew's final project before his death on July 30, as well as one of his recent documentaries.

Anne: A Life in Making Films, 2014: Robert Drew's final documentary;
A President to Remember: In the Company of John F. Kennedy, 2008

September 27 & 28, 2:00 pm

BEWITCHED MARATHON

The Paley Center commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the classic sitcom Bewitched with marathon screenings chosen by Bewitched expert Herbie J Pilato.

October 4 & 5; 11 & 12, 2:00 pm

SUPERHERO CLASSICS

Superman, Batman, and Wonder Woman . . . the "big three" of DC comics, enduring, iconic creations that defined a medium and a genre which, eight decades hence, rules at the box office and drives much of contemporary pop culture.

The Adventures of Superman: George Reeves's 1950s portrayal of the Man of Steel remains iconic; Batman: "The Purr-fect Crime" and "Better Luck Next Time" episodes of the 1960s campy, Pop Art action series; The New, Original Wonder Woman: The 1970s TV incarnation of the genre's first and most enduring significant female superhero.

October 25 & 26, 2:00 pm

TV TRICK OR TREAT

There are tricks and treats aplenty as the Paley Center celebrates Halloween with a grab bag of episodes and specials celebrating every ghoul's favorite holiday.

Buffy the Vampire Slayer: "Once More with Feeling": Sing along with your fellow superfans as we bring you the special musical episode of Buffy; Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog: Joss Whedon's 2008 fan-favorite web series with the sympathetic bad guy; Freaks and Geeks: "Tricks and Treats": Worlds collide on this Halloween episode of the cult classic teen series.